

---

—Mr. Jacob Lang informs us that yesterday he found, under the culvert on the railroad tract just south of town, 25 grain sacks. Five of them were marked with the name of C. Carlson, one Anderson Bros., and one C. C., written on it with red paint. The parties owning the sacks may have the same by calling on Mr. Lang.

---