Colgate.

Our beautiful town, destined to be in the near future the capital of this, our great and glorious State of North Dakota, and why? Because we run no blind pigs; we are in the center of civilization; in the heart of the great wheat belt, and our wants next to a good crop and good prices, this year, is the capital, which we are sure to get.

Miss Liza King commenced school on the 9th instant, with a fair attendance of scholars.

Rev. W. C. Whisnand is conducting our ministerial affairs with much success, and is more and more thought of by the people of Colgate.

Ed Williams is putting in a big acreage of wheat. Ed is a rustler from away back.

Mr. Laor King is back among us after his visit with the G. A. R. boys, and amidst dust and smoke is putting in his crop of 200 acres, while the boys on the tree claim are making business howl.

Business is good at the postoffice.

Mr. C. H. Williams will put into crop this year 340 acres.

Mr. A. F. Warner will put into crop this year 600 acres.

D. L. Bogardus, is working along nicely and will put into crop 300 acres.

The acreage in crops this season around Colgate will exceed that of last year by several thousand acres.
