

---

—The Congregational society have erected a number of substantial and warm horse sheds just west of the church. This will make it much more convenient for those attending church, and more comfortable for the animals they drive.

---