

---

Many of our farmers have finished seeding wheat, and all are well advanced. The season is nearly a month in advance of last year, the ground is in fine condition to receive the seed, and at present prospects are very encouraging to farmers. There will be a much larger acreage than last year.

---