

present week.

—Fred Cutter, living a short distance southeast of Dazey, Barnes County, was caught in a fierce prairie fire last week, with the result of having his clothes burned entirely from his body and his flesh horribly burned. The fire also destroyed all his grain and hay, amounting to a considerable sum.

—A larva order of Uleia currant circularis