

penance greatly.

Our night watch between Gallatan and the Devils Canyon has always attended to his duties until, one night recently he estrayed off his course and stopped at the school house; but the worst of all, he got the mitten there, but he mustered up courage again and got as far as the white house south of Gallatan, when his tooth began to ache and he had to make haste for home, as the fine-cut was too much for him.

Q I Dond called at Kistaville on Monday