

—The resignation of Rev. T. W. Haven, of the Congregational church, which was tendered some two weeks ago, was acted upon last Sunday and accepted by the members of the church. We have not heard whether the church has secured another minister for the ensuing year yet, but think they will find it difficult to secure another so popular with the majority of the people as Rev. Haven has been.