

source.

—The wagon scales, which have marred the looks of Steele Avenue heretofore, have been taken out, that they might not interfere with the grading. With these out of the way Steele Avenue will present a nice appearance when the grading is completed.

To another column will be found