

—The band boys went to Sherbrooke this morning, to discourse sweet strains for the edification of the independent mass convention there assembled.