

—The ball given by the band boys on decoration day evening was a grand success financially, and everyone reports a fine time. It was crowded a little too much for comfort, about 60 numbers being out, but the crowd stood it good-humoredly. The boys netted about $50.00 from the proceeds of the evening.