

---

—The parties who took in the encampment at Spiritwood commenced returning Monday, and by Tuesday evening all had reached home. Some of them were slightly disfigured, but they all agree as regards one thing, and that is that they had a grand good time. A very large crowd was present during the encampment, and on July 4th the number in attendance was estimated at between 4,000 and 5,000.

---