

---

Contractor Knapp has been at work most of the week repairing the damage done the Hope school house by lightning. The work has been finished, and the building is now ready for the painters.

---