

---

—Our citizens could not fail to notice the difference (?) which the street lamp made last Sunday night, when rounding the corner of Steele avenue and Third street when on their way from church.

---