

—There is talk of draining the two large ponds this spring, the one situated back of the Nelson House and extending to the McMahon building, the other situated just east of the bank, and also talk of grading Steele avenue. Both improvements would be heartily welcomed by our citizens. Let the good work be commenced as soon as possible.