—About four hundred invitations have been sent out by the committee for the Masonic and Odd Fellows ball, banquet and social to take place on Thanksgiving evening, the 26th. The committee sent out all the invitations which they had ordered printed and yet ran short. A general invitation is extended to every one to attend. If you did not receive a printed invitation a cordial invitation is hereby extended to one and all to be there. It will be a notable event, and you cannot afford to miss the opportunity of enjoying it. There will be provided amusements in plenty, room is plenty so everybody come.
