

---

—Rev. S. B. Mahaney has been quite sick since last Monday, being confined to his bed, from having his face poisoned through some means, it is thought by his coming in contact with some poisonous plant while attending camp meeting at Portland, a couple of weeks since. His face and head were badly swollen and he was quite sick from the effects of it, but is now improving somewhat.

---