

The selection of O. G. Major, the Edendale statesman, as a delegate to Represent the independent party of Steele county in the Omaha convention, is an honor worthily bestowed upon one of the ablest and hardest workers for that party in the county. Independents, take your hats off and bow low to the Valley City convention for the favor bestowed.

