

---

—We dropped into Geo. McLean's shop, the first of the week, being attracted by the noise. We found in there a steam feed mill in active operation, and everybody busy as bees. The mill is run by steam power, Geo. having converted a threshing engine into a stationary one, and he is doing a good business with the mill.

---