

house No. 1, last Sunday.

A large prairie fire was raging through this section last week and it burned down John Mihm's barn, 25 bushels of seed oats, his feed, buggy top, and single harness. This fire will be a great damage to the farmers, as it has burned up all the feed for miles around.

The prospects for a year this summer are