

---

—Ed. Norgaard, who has been working for Treasurer Brumdale on his farm, met with quite a serious accident one day last week. While riding on a cart, the horse became unmanagable, and in endeavoring to jump out, he caught his foot and broke both bones of the leg, just below the knee.—Tribune.

---