

---

—Our new hotel—"The Northwestern," will be opened to the public Saturday, under the able management of H. F. Stuart. The house has been entirely refitted and newly furnished, and the travelling public may be assured of finding only first-class accommodations under its hospitable roof.

---