

GOOD AS ELECTED.

William Orser, the Colgate Seer,
Solid for E. D. Wallace.

Colgate, N. D., June 21, 1892.

Editor Hope Pioneer:

I hear that Mr. E. D. Wallace, of your town, has received the nomination of Lieutenant Governor of our state of North Dakota, from the hands of the independent party.

I, as a republican, heartily endorse that nomination, and shall do all that I can, both by my vote and influence, to help elect him to that honorable position.

I feel that we, as a people, owe him a debt which has not yet been discharged, and that is for the good work he has done for us as a party, and the most able part he took as our delegate in helping frame the constitution of our state. We cannot consistently blame him for stepping out from our ranks and joining hands with those who recognize his ability, and I would say to Republicans, Democrats and Independents, throw aside party and vote for the man in every case, and in this case especially. Give him such a majority as will surp. ise his most sanguine expectations, and pay the debt we owe him. Yours, Respectfully,

Wm. ORSER.
