

---

—Prairie fires have been raging in every direction the past week, the one west of town came very near burning Robert Wilson's wheat but by hard fighting it was saved. It is high time that our holdings were protected from these fires. So let all turn out some fine day and burn a fire break.

---