

SHERBROOK.

June 20.—We just had a school election.

The officers who were elected as school directors were Hans Gilbertson and Koute Halvorson. No women were elected this year, as we had enough of them last year. The "number two" school district in Highland township is out of six months school, so that will learn them not to vote any women in the school board any more.

Little Dickeland who has been attending