

---

—C. W. Dawdy, our enterprising harness-maker, has erected a unique and attractive sign. It consists of a solid board frame about six feet square, on which is portrayed the exact likeness of a spirited milk-white steed, already harnessed and hitched, ready for the start. It is the artistic work of B. D. Stewart and does him great credit.

---