

---

—The two bear cubs brought here last week were ruffed off at Hench's billiard hall Wednesday night. Ben Walden was the lucky man, but he in turn ruffed them again, with the result that the first owner again become their possessor.

---