

—Robert Whisnand's dwelling which was in course of construction, in Broadlawn township, was struck by Monday evening's storm and completely wrecked. The work of re-constructing the same was begun on Tuesday and had proceeded to a considerable extent when on Wednesday night it was struck by lightning, tearing out one end of the building. Truly, this is hard luck, and plenty of it.

The fire was brought the road Thursday