

Died.

Miss Lillie Brown, aged 19 years, oldest daughter of J. G. Brown, living nine miles north-west of town, died Saturday morning of typhoid fever. She was buried in the Hope cemetery Monday, at one o'clock. Owing to the serious illness of several other members of the family no services were held, but a sermon will be preached by Rev. W. C. Whisnand, some time soon.