

DIED

On Friday morning, July 25th, 1890, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Carpenter, $\frac{3}{4}$ miles south of town, Mrs. Mary Burgess in the 72d year of her age.

For months past Mrs. Burgess has been a great sufferer and death was only the welcome messenger that set the troubled spirit free. From Thursday morning to 10 o'clock Friday morning her sufferings were intense and then she fell asleep, we trust

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,

From which none ever wake to weep."

The funeral took place 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and was largely attended by the friends and neighbors of the deceased, the ceremonies being conducted by Rev. S. B. Mahaney in the M. E. church.
