

—Postmaster Rice received a telegram from Winnet, Minnesota, last Wednesday, announce-ing the sudden death of his father, who resided there. It was a great shock to Mr. Rice, he having received a letter from his father but a few days previous, when he was in as good health as usual. Mr. R. departed for Winnet upon Thursday to attend the last sad rites, which occur to-day.