

---

Died—At Ellsbery, Barnes county, on Wednesday afternoon, of diphtheria, John Templer. Mr. Templer was one of the oldest residents in that neighborhood, having come to Dakota some six years ago, from Michigan. He was unmarried, and was looked upon by his neighbors as being a sober, industrious man, and was much respected by all who knew him. The funeral occurred on Thursday.

---