W. A. McInnis left last Friday for different parts of the middle west and west. He intends going to Denver first, where he will remain for a short while, then to other parts farther west. The length of his trip or the time he may be gone is an unknown quantity wholly. However, he says he will not be back to North Dakota inside of two years at least. Will is a genuine good boy and takes with him the best wishes of all who know him.
