

John Kjelson, of Dazey, was in the city Monday and The Times-Record acknowledges a pleasant call. Mr. Kjelson is one of the old timers and twenty years ago helped to build the First National bank building in which this paper has its office.