

John Buckley, an old time engineer on our little branch railroad, passed away Sunday morning. His death caused a cloud to rise above us all, it was so sudden and unexpected. We all join in sympathy with those who are left to mourn his loss.