Dazey.

DAZEY, June 25, 1895.

More rain, more wheat, if the rust will let the grain alone.

The Griggs county band will furnish the music on the Fourth.

Our race track is completed and it is a fine one. Bring your trotting and running horses on the Fourth.

Most of the Dazey people took in the camp meeting on the river last Sunday. All report having a good time and better morraly.

Andrew Gould one of the pioneer settlers passed away after a long struggle for life. The sympathy of the community is with his aged mother.

Mrs. W. J. Wheeler wishes to announce to the people that she will be in shape to furnish meals or lunches to those wishing the same on the Fourth of July.

In our previous writing we mentioned the failing of W. L. Pattison. He now lies beneath the sod with many gone before. The sympathy of all is with the wife and daughter.
