

The remains of the late John Wilcox were taken up Thursday and sent to Minneapolis, where they will be reinterred in Lakewood cemetery, where deceased had purchased a lot and requested his remains be permanently laid away.