

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents at Wimbledon, on Wednesday, February 1, 1899, Mr. Albert Hanson to Miss Mary Anderson.

The many friends of Albert in this vicinity will be surprised to learn that he has taken unto himself a wife, from among the belles of Wimbledon. Mrs. Hanson is the daughter of the proprietor of one of Wimbledon's hotels and is a young lady highly esteemed and prominent in Wimbledon social circles.

The groom, whose home was near here before Enderln was on the map, is a most promising young man and known and respected by everyone for miles around.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson came down from Wimbledon this morning and went out to Mr. Henry Hanson's for a few days visit with Albert's parents. They will make Cooperstown their home, where the groom has a good position.
