

The marriage of Miss Annie B. Anderson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, and J. L. More, was solemnized at the home of the brides parents in this city, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, by the Rev. Martin, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the young people. The maid of honor, her sister, Miss Mary Anderson, was dressed in a beautiful white gown and carried roses. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of the bridegroom and was followed by her maid and best man, his brother, Bassell A. More. The bride looked charming in her gown of white silk with appropriate trimmings. The parlors were handsomely decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony an elaborate lunch was served to the relatives of the newly married couple. They left over the Soo on an eastern trip, and upon their return Mr. and Mrs. More will reside in the new Rascom residence.
