

HYMENEAL

DR. W. B. WANNER AND MISS ALICE GLADYS MCGILLAN ARE MADE ONE.

One of the prettiest weddings Baraga has seen for some time was Wednesday afternoon when, at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride, Rev. Fr. Terhorst pronounced the words which made Dr. Wm. B. Wanner, of Wimbledon, N. D., and Miss Alice Gladys McGillan, of this city man and wife.

To the sweet strains of a wedding march played on a piano by Miss Helen Burt, the bridal party proceeded to the spacious parlor, where, in the center of the room the ceremony was performed amidst a profusion of roses, carnations, pond lillies and ferns.

Miss Lizzie McGillan, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. J. J. Feckler as groomsman.

The bride was attired in a dress of cream silk with overdress of silk grenidine, with mother of pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of Bride's Roses. The bridesmaid wore a becoming dress of pale blue Moussoline de soi, and carried pink carnations.

The groom is a well known physician of North Dakota, and is rapidly rising to the front rank of his profession.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thos. McGillan and is considered one of Baraga's most popular young ladies, and is held in high esteem by all who know her.

After the ceremony an elegant wedding dinner was served to the guests.

The following guests were present at the marriage ceremony:

Mrs. Thos. McGillan, mother of the bride; Mrs. G. W. Butterfield and son Thomas; Mrs. M. McIntosh and daughters, Marguarite, Genevieve and Martha; the Misses Anna and Emma McGillan; Miss J. O'Leary, of Houghton; Eugene Murphy, of Duluth; M. E. Moore, Chicago, uncle of the bride; William McGillan; Miss Geraldine Ryan; L. F. Wanner, father of the groom.

In the evening a reception was held. About one hundred guests called and congratulated the happy couple. The guests were received by J. J. Feckler and Miss Lizzie McGillan.

The following from out of town attended the reception:

M. E. Moore, Chicago, Eugene Murphy, Duluth; L. F. Wanner, Pingree, N. D.; Miss J. O'Leary, Houghton. Mrs. G. W. Butterfield, Lake Linden.

The newly wedded couple left on the 11:30 train for a tour through the western states. They will take up their residence at Wimbledon, N. D.—Baraga. (Mich.) Review,

Dr. Wanner and his bride returned from their tour Tuesday night. They will soon be at home to their friends in the pleasant residence formerly occupied by D. D. Clendening. The News desires to be considered among the many friends of the happy couple and joins those friends in sincere good wishes for a long and happy wedded life.