

COURTENAY ITEMS.

Nevas started threshing Monday.

John Milne, who has been working in Wimbledon for some time has returned.

Mrs. Atwood and daughter Suez and Miss Mattie Sanford spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Jamestown.

Mr. H. Cornell has returned to Courtenay and will remain until after threshing, at least.

Arthur Swartwout, Miss Belle Langworthy, Olen Langworthy, Miss Carrie Bronson and Mr. and Mrs. Ross spent Sunday at Spiritwood lake.

John Raab has been working for Mr. Wilson in the harness shop, as Mr. W. has had more than he could do.

Courtenay was well represented in the hunting field Tuesday. Though the day was too dry and hot for good sport the boys were quite successful. The largest bags were brought in by L. H. Larson, John Raab, Frank Lemert and Mr. Rising in one party, and Arthur Swartwout and Mr. and Mrs. Ross in another, the number of chickens gotten by each of the two parties being the same.

Mr. Cornell is training a new bird dog and expects soon to depopulate North Dakota of chickens.

C. H. Hanson, the photographer, will close business in this city Sunday.
