

---

Leal Items

Hazellet and Rowland Hilborn have bought a gasoline engine with a 32 inch seperater for threshing.

The store of Smith and Hilborn at Leal is a new enterprise to the small town. They are two industrious young men and are determined to make it a success. They handle machinery and buggies and general merchandise.

Henry Hilborn has completed his new house.

---