

LEAL NOTES.

Elias Fitterling, of Minneapolis, stepped off the train this morning. He will spend a few days with his brother, Ephriam Fetterling, who lives one mile east of town.

F. B. Smith, who has been laid up for some time with a lame side is able to be around again.

Miss Clara Halverson, of Valley City, is visiting with her friend, Miss Minnie Bascom.

G. L. Hunt's chickens catch it these days. The hobos have chicken soup every day; but they were not so bad as they might have been. They left him three to start with again.

David Walks fell off a water tank last Sunday throwing his elbow out of joint. We sympathize with him in his misfortune.

H. Barton is kept busy these days keeping the farmers' binders running. He is quite an expert on binders.

John A. Simpson, of Courtenay, spent Sunday night with his brother, George.
