

Jas. E. Walks came up from his farm near Leal, Thursday. He made THE NEWS a pleasant call—told some of the political history of the early days in Barnes county; how his 200 acres was damaged five bushel to the acre. But he wasn't discouraged—takes 13 weekly and two daily papers, but wanted THE NEWS—and planked down the cash.

The Rev. Daniel H. H. ...