

ful physicians regarding her case but without avail, and on the above date she was called away, the cause of death being quick consumption. Funeral services were held Thursday. The bereaved husband and family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.