

Death of Mrs. Sutter.

The following is taken from the PRESS-SPECTATOR, published at Salsbury, Mo. The deceased was a mother of Mrs. Anton Feckler of this place, who was present at the time of her mother's death:

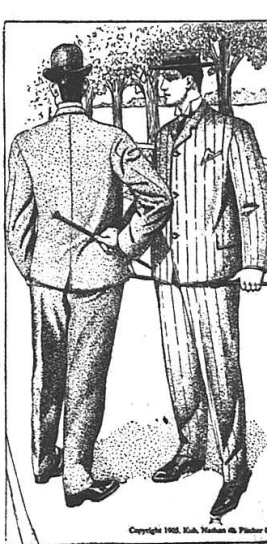

Mrs. Magdalene Sutter, widow of the late Antone Sutter, died of heart trouble, Monday morning, April 3, 1905, at her home about six miles north of Salsbury, aged 66 years, 9 months and 24 days.

Mrs. Sutter was born in Germany and came to this country when quite small, settling first in Perry county and later removing here.

She leaves seven children—three sons and four daughters. The sons are: Ferdinand, Antone and Fredoline, all of near Salsbury; the daughters are: Mrs. Sternitzke of Moberly, Mrs. A. Keeting of Keytesville, Mrs. Anton Feckler of Dakota and

Are You For E

If you are prepared with you Easter Sunday, get it ready. som forth in your very best, spring. If you have't see other fixin's it's high time yo other day pass without doing of our new K. N. & F. suits, to $25.00 or a new top coat a of the new spring hats. Y gloves, of course, either of a light toned cravat, suitable fo

Copyright 1903, Kuhn, Nathan & Fischer

Stern's Clo

Mrs. Chas. Budel, of Montana. All except Mrs. Budel were present at their mother's death.

Funeral services were conducted by Father Lubeley from St. Joseph's church Wednesday morning and interment followed in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Sutter was a true Christian, a loving wife and mother, who tried always to do her duty by her family and neighbors. Her beautiful Christian character and her devotion to friends endeared her to all.