

car and he fell under the wheels cutting off his right leg and mangling his right arm. The conductor saw the boys position and the train was stopped almost instantly. He was placed in the caboose and brought to this place where Dr. Macdonald, who happened here shortly before the train arrived. Dr. Wanner, who had been in the country during the afternoon, arrived early in the evening and it was decided to take the injured boy to the Minot hospital. Monday evening word was received here that he died that afternoon at 4 o'clock. His father went to Portal in advance of