

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Young at Leal was made sad Saturday evening of last week occasioned by the death of their only son which occurred at 5:50 that evening. The child had been sick but a short time and everything that skilled physicians, trained nurses and members of the family could do, was done, but the patient gradually grew weaker until death came and relieved him of all suffering. He was an exceptionally bright child, of three years, a favorite of his little play-mates in the neighborhood and loved and cherished in his home. Private funeral services were held from the house Monday at 11 o'clock, Rev. Hewson of this place preached a very comforting and impressive sermon. The remains were laid to rest in the Leal cemetery. The most sincere sympathy is extended the bereaved parents in their affliction.
