

Anderson--McClain.

The ceremony uniting Anton Anderson and Lydia McClain as man and wife was solemnized at the Lutheran church Friday of last week. The contracting parties are well known here, the bride being a popular school teacher in this community and the groom is a prosperous farmer residing a few miles east of Wimbledon. The News join with friends in extending best wishes to the happy young couple.
