Wm. Bruske Married

Wm. Bruske was married last Tuesday to Miss Lizzie Clemens of Jamestown, the ceremony taking place in that city. Our information is meager concerning the details surrounding the happy event, and we have not the pleasure of the young lady's acquaintance. We doubt not, however, that she will prove a worthy helpmeet to the man of her choice who comes from one of our best families. The News with other friends wishes the young people many years of united happiness.
