

A Pretty Wedding

Was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Booth near Rogers Thursday Nov. 30, when at 1 o'clock p. m. Miss Alice Booth was given in marriage to Neil McFadgen, Rev. A. M. Hewson of the M. E. church of Wimbledon tying the nuptial knot, in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride wore a white silk mull dress and carried a bouquet of beautiful flowers and was attended by her sister Miss Bessie. The groom wore the usual conventional black and Mr. Wallace Yule acted as groomsman.

After the ceremony and extending congratulations a sumptuous dinner was served. The presents were numerous and very pretty showing the high esteem in which these people are held by their many friends.

The happy couple left on the N. P. evening train for Livingston, Mont., where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Wilkinson for a few weeks; Mrs. Wilkinson being a sister to the bride. On their return they will make their home at the groom's farm south of Rogers.
